COLORFUL LUNCHEONS AND MUSICALES ARRANGED BY WOMEN'S CLUBS

Opera Stars to Appear at Women's Clubs Recitals

Rubinstein to Be Entertained by Miss Florence Macbeth, Lyric Soprano, Who Will Give Group of Songs in Costume-Other Events.

paigning for their favorite candidates at an end, women ganizations of which they are members. Full calendars have been arranged by all the clubs for the winter, with music as the chief attraction for the next few weeks.

Haarlem Philharmonic Society will have its first musical of the season on Thursday, and Rubinstein Club has its first afternoon musical on Saturday and a concert on December 6. The National Opera Club has two musical events this week, a concert on Wednesday, and another on Friday in conjunction with the Commonwealth day, and another on Friday in con-junction with the Commonwealth Astor. Center. Chaminade has one on Tues-Center. Chaminade has one on Tuesday. Euphony Society on December 2 and Euterpe Club on December 8. Beethoven Society enjoyed an after-

Miss Florence Macbeth, lyrle soprano of the Chicago Opera Cempany. The programme will be followed by tea and afterward the ballroom will be cleared for dancing, which will be enjoyed until half-past six o'clock. Mrs. Gustav. G. Schick, chairman of reception, assisted by Mrs. George T. Coulter and Mrs. George B. Crawford, will introduce the new members and special guests of honor. The club's first evening concert will be on December 6.

The annual meeting of the Little Mothers' Ald Association was held last will be on December 6.

On account of its war record, Rubinstein is especially interested in the reception to be given in honor of Marshal Foch on Saturday, which will be attended by some of the members. A delegation from the club, including Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. Alexander H. Candlish and Mrs. Marshal O. Terry, was present at the exercises in Washington on Armistice Day.

Mrs. Harold Avery, more than twenty Mrs. Harold Avery, more than twenty years a member of Rubinstein, was one of the ten women selected from the list of War Mothers for reserved seats in the Amphitheatre at Arlington for the burial services of the Unknown Soldier on Friday. These ten American War Mothers acted as an escort to Mrs. R. Emmett Digney, the National American War Mother, who was selected to lay the wreath for America on the grave. Rubinstein Club sent a wreath made of Rubinstein Club sent a wreath made of metal laurel leaves and natural flowers, the gift of Mrs. Terry, wife of Surgeon General Marshall O. Terry.

first musicale of the season of Isarlem Philharmenic Society, Mrs. Neorett M. Raynor president, will be seld on Thursday morning in the ballbrich. Mrs. Horstie H. Gates is chairman of the committee of arrangements and Mrs. William H. Whittall, vice-chairman. Others c. the committee are Mrs. C. L. Bleakler, Mrs. F. E. Cooley. Mrs. H. H. Ford, Mrs. E. B. Lease, Mrs. C. C. Linton, Mrs. M. E. McCoun, Mrs. F. B. Robinson, Mrs. C. S. Shumway, Mrs. A. R. Starr, Mrs. William E. Trotter, Mrs. F. P. Whiting, Mrs. H. G. White and Miss N. M. Woodward.

secal at the Hotel Plaza. An enjoyable programme was given by Miss Helen Stover and Sisnor Fernando Guarner, and at its close dancing was enjoyed for several hours.

The society will give a card party on November 25 at the Plaza. Tickets may be had from Mme. Tagliavia. The society of the national association by teaching voice and speech, but who cannot afford the tuition.

Preparations are being made for the card party of the card party to be given for the William composer invited by Mayor Hyllanian composer with the famous composer. Maestro Cavalier A. S. Doda, at the plane. Maestro Doda was the plane of the plane of the national association by the second that the plane of the plane. Miss cite the different nations with the famous composer. Maestro Cavalier A. S. Doda, at the plane. Maestro Doda was the plane. Maestro Cavalier A. S. Doda, at the plane. Maestro Doda was the plane. Maestro Cavalier A. S. Doda, at the plane. Maestro Doda was the plane. Maestro Poda was the plane. Maestro Poda was the plane. Maestro Cavalier A. S. Doda, at the plane. Maestro Doda was the plane. Maestro Poda was the plane. Maestro Cavalier A. S. Doda, at the plane. Maestro Doda was the plane. Maestro Poda was the plane. Maestro Cavalier A. S. Doda, at the plane. Maestro Poda was the plane.

The National Opera Club, Mme. Kath-The National Opera Club, Mme. Katherine Evans Von Klehner, president, in cooperation with the Commonwealth Center, managed by Mrs. J. G. Drayton, will present the second act of "Faust" on Friday afternoon at the Town Hall. It will be under the direction of Roman'do Sanio, and the cast will include Beatrice Bowan, Clementine de Vere

Sapio and Rossi-Deihl.

At the study day of the club on Thursday at the Waldorf-Astoria "Lohengrin" was the topic and was discussed by Havrah Hubbard, the club's official by Havran Hubbard, the chies solvent lecturer. Plane illustrations were given by Edgar Bowan. The first social evo-ning of the club will be on Wednesday also at the Waldorf, when "Pagliacel" will be the opera. Dancing will follow the programme. Mr. Francis Wright Clinton will be the chairman of the

The programme of the Chaminade's afternoon musical on Tuesday at the Pouch Gallery, Brooklyn, promises to be unusually interesting. The artists will be Bertram N. Haigh, Raiph Brown, Miss Margery Fullerton, soprano, and Os-ke-won-toa (Mohawk Indian), barytone, who at the close of the musical by a business

7 ITH election over, and cam-

More than eight hundred members and of clubs from now on will devote much of their time to the meetings, both business and social, of the organizations of which they are men.

musical, a memorial to Enrico Caruso.
Rubinstein Club, Mrs. William Rogers
Chapman president, begins its thirtyfifth season on Saturday afternoon with a musical at the Waldorf-Astoria, when a costume revital will be given by Miss Florence Macbeth, lyric soprano of the Chicago Opera Company. The pro-

The annual meeting of the Little Mothers' Aid Association was held last Thursday, at Happy Day House, 236 Second avenue. The officers and chair men elected were: President, Mrs. Clearence Burns; vice-presidents, Mrs. Charles E. Sprague, Mrs. Frank Oliver Hall, Mrs. Albert Gallatin Weed, Mrs. Henry Forbes Kiddle, Mrs. Bond-Stow, Mrs. William Grant Brown, Mrs. John H. Judge and Mrs. Charles E. Wilcox, secretaries, Mrs. Duncan MacPherson and Mrs. Emile Van Bell; treasurer, Mr. Frank H. Hazzard of the Union Dime Savings Bank; chairman of the advisory board, Mr. John H. Judge; chairmen of committees, Mrs. Alfred Mrs. George L. Fowler, discussion; Mrs. Harry C. Davidson, reception; d. Mrs. C. N. Garryus, Americanization; Mrs. P. G. Saawyer, aid, and Miss Alice Conversed Mr. John H. Judge; d. Mr. Frank H. Hazzard of the Union Dime Savings Bank; chairman of the advisory board, Mr. John H. Judge; chairmen of committees, Mrs. Alfred Mrs. Charles E. Abbott, Mrs. E. G. Cunning-ham, Miss C. A. Patterson, Mrs. G. W. Eason, Mrs. W. B. Feck, Miss A. E. Cameron, Dr. J. Lombard Muller, Mrs. Matthew L. Carr, Mrs. J. Stuart Smith, Mrs. W. E. Wilkinson, Mrs. Alfred Brosseau, Mrs. John Jay Cowdray and Mrs. Alfred Watts Kiddle.

After luncheon a bazzar meeting washeld and about half the boxes at the Waldorf-Astoria, where the Bazaar of Nations will be held on Saturday, December 3, were reported sold. The tea room will represent France, with Mrs. Alfred Milander in charge. Girls of society will serve as waitresses and will be dressed in French costumes, Mrs. James Silliman and Dr. Miller have taken the Russian booth, while Mrs. Charles E. Wilcox selected Ireland. The Scotch booth will be presided over by Miss Eleis McCaul and Mrs. Duncan MacPherson. Mrs. Charles E. Abbott, who has just returned from China, will have charge of the recital and dance to be held at the Plaza Hotel on Wednesday evening. December of the City of the Little Mothers' Mrs. Alfred Mrs. Thousand the Mrs. Duncan MacPherson Mrs. Alfred Mrs. Duncan MacPherson Mrs. A will be George Meader, tenor of the Metropolitan Opera Company; Cornelius Van Vleit, cellist of the New York Philibarmonic Orchestra, and Miss Dusolina (Giannini, soprano, a pupil of Mme. Sembelch, Mrs. Horati) H. Gates is chairballed Mrs. Charles E. Abbett who has that returned

The committee in charge of the re-cital and dance to be held at the Plaza Hotel on Wednesday evening, December 14, for the benefit of the Voice Training Mrs. A. R. Starr, Mrs. William E. Trotter, Mrs. F. P. Whiting, Mrs. H. G.
White and Miss N. M. Woodward.

Beethoven Society, Mme. Aida Tanini Tagliavia. president began its eighth senson yesterday with an afternoon musteal at the Hotel Plaza. An enjoyable recognition of the Voice Training
Scholarship Fund, has received a letter of cencouragement from Sir Philip Gibbs.
The aim of the National Association for American Speech, under whose aussenson yesterday with an afternoon musteal at the Hotel Plaza. An enjoyable recognition of the Voice Training
Scholarship Fund, has received a letter of American Speech, under whose ausserve the purity of American speech for national unity and national culture sical at the Hotel Plaza. An enjoyable national unity and national culture programme was given by Miss Helen against foreign influence and native Stover and Signor Pernando Guarner.

Conservation committee of the Crippied faller, and Harvest Pirst ships," by Mrs. Forest W. Gallien. The next meeting of the Crippied and Delicate Child. Home for Crippied and Delicate Child. Home for Crippied and Delicate Child. Walter Scott is president. It is to be been seen that the control of the Crippied Control

Debutnate, Red Cross Chairman, and Organizer of Benefit for the Blind

The first meeting of the season to be held by the Andrew Jackson Chapter, U. S. D. of 1812, will take place Tuesday at the Waldorf-Astoria, Mrs. Hamer Lee is regent of the chapter.

held Wednesday afternoon at the Walderf-Astoria, with the president, Mrs. William Gerry Slade, in the chair. Mrs. Clarence Wilbur Smith was elected librarian; Mrs. Washington L. Mann. third vice-president; Mrs. Frances Gib-son, councillor, and Mrs. Turner, his-torian, each for a four year term.

Drama Comedy, Edyth Totten, president, held its first social matinee of the season on Friday in honor of those who made the supreme sacrifice. "The Americans Come" was given by Miss Mildred Holland, with Miss Fay Foster, the composer, playing her own accompaniment.

Mine. Marianna Vote sang three arias to the different nations with the famous composer. Maestro Cavalier A. S. Doda, at the piano. Maestro Doda was the

The programms of the Chaminades (Millor, Mrs. A. F. Amos and Mrs. J. F. Amos and J. Am

bishop Hayes and Brothers' Boys have dren and the cardiac classes of the city of New York. Members of the Junfon League and debutantes will take part in the cast. They include Misses Lois

A bridge tournament for the building fund of the Fifth Avenue Hospital will the cast. They include Misses Lois Stumer, Margaret Oppenheimer, Roseday under the auspices of a committee headed by Mrs. H. Edward Manville of 125 East Seventy-second street. Mrs. Manville will be assisted by a committee of ten women. Arrangements for tables, Mrs. Frederick Greenbaum is chairman of the programme committee and which are to of ten women. Arrangements for tables, which are $10, may be made at the hear-quarters of the Fifth Avenue Hospital Association. at 204 Madison avenue.

The American Society of Reconstruc-tion, Mrs. Robert Wylie Lyle, president, will hold a bridge party to-morrow af-ternoon at the Hotel Plaza. Mrs. K. Donnarumma of 59 West Seventy-first street is chairman of the committee on arrangements.

The National California Club has made arrangements at the Waldorf-Astoria for n Presidents' Tea next Tuesday afternoon. It will be in charge) of Mrs. Gladys B. Gordon, chairman, Mrs. Henry L. Harrison and Mrs. Charles Austin Bates. Mrs. George Perkins Lawton as chairman of the reception committee will be assisted by Mrs. Samuel I. Warren and others of her committee. committee will be assisted by Mrs. Samusl I. Warren and others of her committee.

Dixie Club of New York will give a large card party on the afternoon of November 22 at the Waldorf-Astoria for the benefit of the philanthropic fund of the club. In addition to the cards there will be a musical programme by Miss Marion Armstrong. Tickets may be obtained from the chairman of entertainment, Mrs. James A. Allen, 313 West Eighty-third street.

The Woman's National Automobile Club of America, Mrs. Charles G. Braxmar, Mrs. Baker are Mrs. Charles G. Braxmar, Mrs. Baker are Mrs. Campbell, vice-prosidents; Mrs. Alexander Lampbell, vice-prosidents; Mrs. Theophilus Brown Hilton, secretary and treasurer, and Mrs. Della Vere Martin, chairman of membership and reception.

The Washington Heights Chapter, D. A. R., Mrs. Samuel J. Kramer, regentheld a meeting at the Waldorf-Astoria on Armistice Day. The speakers were Dr. Sidney Gulick, secretary of the Feieral Council of the Churches of Christ of America, and Col. Helen R. Bastedo, director of Social Service, Eliss Island, and the artists were Amelia Bingham and Minnie Carey Stein. Mrs. Edmund W. Kingland was chairman of the committee in charge of the programme.

The chapter will give a card party at the Waldorf on Saturday. Mrs. Cora Pike Stowe will be chairman of the content of the Chapter in Ch

Dr. Frances W. Monell, president, wind preside at the meeting of the Society of New York State Women to-morrow afternoon at the Hotel Astor. Mrs. A. J. Herbermann will be chairman of programme. Prof. Alexis du Pont Coleman of New York City College will be the speaker, Miss Beatrice Bowman, soprano, Miss Mary Carmel Haley, reciter, and Harold Manly, violinist, the artists.

The Maine Women's Club of New York held its second meeting of the search on last Saturday afternoon at the Waldorf-Astoria. The president, Mrs. William F. Conklin, presided. The programme included "Sea Tales," by Mrs. C. W. Devereaux: a group of "Sea Songs," given by Mrs. Dorothea Conklin: "Sea Poems," by Mrs. John W. Sargent, and "Maine's First Ships," by Mrs. Fornett W. Gallison. The next meeting of the club on December 3 will be associate members' day.

Mérode underwear is sold this season at prices greatly below those of last fall.

International tribute to our Unknown Dead, personal impressions of the conference delegates and our commercial expansion through the port of New York and its barge canal will be the topics of Mrs. Jessie Lozier Payne's second talk on "History in the Making" at Aeolian Hall on Wednesday under the auspices of the New York Diet Kitchen Association.

A tea was given for Mrs. Belle de Rivera, founder and honorary president of the City Federation of Women's Clubs, on Thursday afternoon at the Hotel Plaza by Mrs. Francis Burrall Hoff-man, chairman of the Woman's National Foundation of the State of New York. The ticket committee is headed by Mrs. Clarence Mithelser and Mrs. Bernard Denzer, while Mrs. Herbert Lehman is chalrman of the doll committee.

The Woman's Forum, Miss Helen Varick Boswell, president, will hold a meeting on Friday morning at the Hotel Biltmore. Mr. Winter Russel, a well known lawyer, publicist and member of the Harvard Debating College, will present the subject of "Science of Business."

A meeting of the New York City Mothers' Club, Mrs. Park Mathewson, president, will be held to-morrow afterbushed the Waldorf-Astria. There will be addresses by Mrs. Harry Lilly, Miss Mary Arnold and Dr. Royal S. Copeland and vocal selections by Miss Rosalie Blanchard.

The Iowa New Yorkers entertained two hundred and fifty Iowans at a musicale and tea last Sunday at Greenwich House. Mrs. E. Henri Boyd, coloratura soprano, gave an interesting programme, accompanied by Miss Fern Sherman. Mrs. E. T. Devine was chairman of the tea, and was assisted by Mmes. J. B. Sullivan, C. W. Stockton, C. F. S. Whitney, Emery Deyo, Julius Bauer, C. S. Gallagher, Clarence West, H. A. Ludlam, L. T. Gaylord, Gerry Philbrick, W. O. Bagley, D. B. Baker, F. R. Raiff and Frank Moelber.

A regular meeting of the Society for Political Study, Mrs. Otto Hahn, president, was held on Tuesday at the Hotel Astor. An instructive programme was given by Miss Amy Wren, the topic, being "Women as Jurors." Mrs. F. L. Wakeman spoke on the threatened nationwide railroad strike. Current events were given by Mrs. John G. Murphy.

Michigan Women in New York, Mrs. John J. Bush president, will hold their regular meeting on Tuesday at the Waldorf Astoria. The speakers will be Dr. Royal S. Copeland, Health Commissioner; Judge Jean Norris of the Domestic Relations Court, and Mrs. Thomas J. Vivian, president of the Congress of States Societies. Miss Mary Allen, contraite, will sing a group of sengs.

For the benefit of their philanthropic work, and Ward 10, Fox Hills Hospital, the club will give a card party to-morrow afternoon at the Waldorf Astoria. Tickets may be purchased from the chairman, Mrs. Arnold Davis, 3647 Broadway.

Dr. Tuesday, the Witness Circle of the work was Mrs. Easton president, met on Wednesday at the Hot i Commodore, when Mrs. Easton president, met on Wednesday at the Hot i Commodore, when Mrs. Easton president, met on Wednesday at the Hot i Commodore, when Mrs. Easton president, met on Wednesday at the Hot i Commodore, when Mrs. Easton president, met on Wednesday at the Hot i Commodore, when Mrs. Easton president, met on Wednesday at the Hot i Commodore, when Mrs. Easton gave the second leeven.

Ticksts may be purchased from the chairman, Mrs. Arnold Davis, 3647 Broadway.

On Tuesday the Witness Circle of the International Order of King's Daughters and Sons will hold its annual bazaar in the parlors of the North Presbyterian Church, One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street, near Broadway. Mrs. J. W. Henson is president of the Circle. There will be many articles on sale suitable for Christmas gifts and goodies specially prepared for Thanksgiving. Mrs. Collin H. Woodward will have charge of the supper room, and those in charge of the supper room, and the other booths will be Mrs. H. W. Millered Manly Easton president, met on Wednesday at the Hot i Commodore, when Mrs. Easton gave the second lecture of a series on "Life and Mental Hygiene." Mrs. H. W. Phelps gave a talk on "Current Events" and the other speakers were Mrs. Harry Lilly, Mrs. Charles Winter and Mrs. John J. Mac-Donald. Judge Tod B. Galloway, bary-tone, sang.

The club will have a luncheon and card party on Tuesday at Stockton Charmen.

The fourth annual "Armistice Celebration" of the University Forum of America and the "Tiger Post," No. 23, of the American Legion will be held Tuesday evening at the headquarters, 23 West Ninety-third street.

Dr. Henry R. Lesser, who was chief of the eye service of Base Hospital No. 208. A. E. F., will give a short address on "The Medical Corps Here and at the Front."

Euterpe Club, Mrs. Alcinous Berton
Jamison, president, will have a bridge and cuchre on Friday at the home of Mrs. Jamison, 43 West Forty-fifth street. The next musicale of the club will be on December 8.

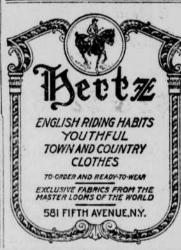

Eclectic Club will have a meeting and luncheon at the Waldorf-Astoria on November 23.

Athene Club, Mrs. Katherine A. Martin president, will have a meeting and luncheon at the Waldorf-Astoria on December 1, also a reception and dance on corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. S. Byers, assistents of the senson Thursday aftermeeting o ember 1, also a reception and dance on ecember 3.

International tribute to our Unknown and tour expending secretary; Mrs. L. V. Fort, historian; Mrs. John Robert Miller, chairman of press, and Mrs. H. G. Julian, chairman of reception commit-

After the regular meeting a fine mustcal programme was given by Miss Eliza-beth Carina, cellist; Miss Hilda Hin-richs, pianist, and Miss Geneva Young, soprano.

Theoria, Mrs. Harold George Wood, president and founder, held its first dinner on Wednesday evening. Following the dinner the club attended the Cort Theatre to see Miss Mary Ryan in "Only 38." On Wednesday the club will have the regular sasson in the helicon. open its regular season in the ballroom of the Astor. The matinee which follows "Thank You" at the Longacre Th

There is style in "Mérode" underwear

THE essence of style is comfort and fit! To be really well-dressed, you must have underwear that is as carefully tailored as your outer clothes.

That is why "Mérode" hand-finished underwear is so satisfactory. It is cut from such well planned patterns and made from such soft, yet firmly knit material, that it fits perfectly the first time you wear it. And it never develops wrinkles or bunches no matter how often it is tubbed. Wherever a seam is necessary the Flatlock seam makes a strong, smooth, elastic finish.

The beauty and up-to-dateness of "Mérode" quality and styles are the result of thirty years' experience in designing and perfect-ing underwear. It is made by carefully trained operators, and each garment is shrunk and carefully inspected before being sent out.

Models to suit every need for high or low dress. Ask to see "Mérode" hand-finished underwear for women, girls and boys and babies at the leading shops.

> You will be glad to know that Merode is now made in styles for men.

Winship, Boit & Co. Wakefield, Mass. HARVARD MILLS' "Mérode" Hand Underwear

for Women, Children and Men